Cong. Bob Filner scores 100% on Civil Rights Legislative Report Cards

Congressman Bob Filner announced that he received a 100% rating from both the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights (LCCR) on their Annual Congressional Scorecards, for first session of the 108th Congress.

"I am honored to be recognized by the NAACP and the LCCR for my record on civil and human rights issues in the United States Congress," said Congressman Filner. "As a young man, I did not stand idly by when many Americans were denied their civil rights - and I will not be complacent now!"

Congressman Filner's record includes support for expanding the Child Tax Credit to low-income families and opposing

The NAACP and the LCCR are leading organizations for civil rights in the United States. Their Congressional scorecards rank members of Congress on votes taken in the House and Senate.
